CL4NX

The CL4NX is SATO's first truly universal printer engineered for the ultimate operator experience, and is skilfully crafted too support new and legacy printing applications across a wide range of verticals that would require a durable and dependable printer for years to come. The CL4NX is a game-changing innovation that is made easy. It is designed to be so easy to use and maintain that anyone can feel the difference from the day they start using it. It's exceptional All-in-One and Simple-to-Operate features include the following:

Sato Barcode Printers: CL4NX

Rating: Not Rated Yet
Ask a question about this product

Sato

Description

- Ultimate User-friendly operability with 3.5 inch full-colour display and built-in video tutorials with 30 user-selectable languages
- Ultimate easy maintenance design with tool-free printhead and platen replacement
- Ultimate print quality consistent across a wide range of consumables
- Best-in-class ruggedness and compactness with aluminium die-cast construction
- Best-in-class processing, throughput speed and memory capacity
- Best-in-class communication and emulation capabilities
- Best-in-class scalability and expandability including RFID and NFC

The CL4NX printer has an bi-folding side cover, significantly reducing it's footprint and making the printer ideal for applications where locating space is at a premium. The coreless ink ribbon rewind system is a further SATO contribution to reducing carbon footprint.